TELEGRAMS

(via Galveston.)

London 20th—Mr. Mathews, Home Secretary, refused in the House of Commons to mitigate in the slightest degree the sentence passed on Kent, the dynamiter. The Times publishes a long article, defending Mr. Balfour from the attacks made on him by the Opposition.

Paris 20th—The Railway Bank has failed for 5,000,000 francs; and the manager, M. Dugoureau, has committed suicide.

Berlin 20th—The situation continues in a state of suspense. The partial crisis in the Cabinet has reference only to von Zeidlitz, Minister of Education, and von Fruizachler, Minister of the Interior.

New York 20th—The correspondent of the New York Herald in Carracas (Venezuela) writes that the insurrection against the Government of General Palacios has failed The troops and the revolutionists had a severe fight near Carmachas, and the latter were defeated with great loss.

Paris 20th—In spite of the general fear entertained, there has been no fresh explosion for some days; and the papers rejoice that the anniversary of the Commune passed quietly. Nevertheless, it is said that, in order to stamp out the Anarchist agitation, the Chamber will pass a Bill imposing the penalty of death on dynamiters.

St. Petersburg 20th.—Government has approved General Gourko's proposal that a credit be opened to further fortify the forts of Warsaw, Modlin and Kowal.

Boston (Massachusetts) 20th.—A telegram from the European Artronomical Union announces the appearance on Friday night of two comets and an asteroid. One of the comets is that known as Winnecke's, and the other has been discovered by Mr. Denington, an amateur astronomer at Bristol. The asteroid is of the 12th magnitude, and has been discovered by Wolf, of Heidelberg.

Rome, March 21st—According to the latest statistics for the month of January imports have fallen off $2,360,000 and exports 1,250,000. Last year's balance sheet shews a difference against Italy of $47,300,000.

Paris, 21st. — Telegrams from St. Petersburg state that the advices from Paris regarding the plot to murder the Czar were very well received there in the Government circles, and that the plot was only discovered at the last moment when arresting the anarchists.

London, 21st—It is stated that the Conservatives will only remain in power till the dissolution of Parliament. The Liberals are gaining ground every day.

THE FROZEN MEAT TRADE.

In the commercial review for 1891 which we find in the Economist of Feb. 20th there is an instructive table of the receipts in England of frozen sheep during the last 7 years. It may be remembered that in May 1882 the first frozen sheep arrived in London from New Zealand, but the butchers made such opposition that it was not until three years later that the frozen meat began to arrive in large quantities.

In the following table Australian includes New Zealand.

Carcases frozen sheep

Year	Australian	R. Plate	Total
1885...	587,000	190,000	777,000
1886...	724,000	434,000	1,158,000
1887...	855,000	642,000	1,497,000
1888...	1,052,000	924,000	1,976,000
1889...	1,155,000	1,010,000	2,165,000
1890...	1,741,000	1,197,000	2,938,000
1891...	2,231,000	1,073,000	3,304,000

The above table does not include the Falkland Islands, which exported 45,000 frozen sheep in 1887, but since that year the average has been only 8,000. It will be observed that the exports from the River Plate have been stationary for the last 3 years, as if we had reached the maximum surplus of mutton, notwithstanding our 75 millions of sheep.

From the report before us we take the following paragraphs:—

There exists in the Australasian colonies and the River Plate the machinery necessary for a much larger volume of trade than is indicated by the above figures. The approximate capacity of the various freezing works engaged in preparing frozen meats for exportation to Europe may now be estimated at 8,000,000 carcases annually, but, of course, they cannot be expected to work up to anything like their full capabilities. So far as New Zealand is concerned, a memorandum recently issued by Messrs. Paterson and Co., of Dunedin, gives the number of refrigerating works now in operation in that colony as 17, with a freezing capacity of 3,650,000 carcases per annum, while other four works are now being built, the yearly output of which may be about 500,000 carcases. Both in New South Wales and in Queensland large works are in course of erection, the capacity of which in beef and mutton, when added to the output of the existing works in Australia, may be estimated at the equivalent of over 1,500,000 carcases of mutton annually. In the River Plate there is no immediate prospect of fresh freezing plant being erected, but it is reported that the four existing establishments have by no means been working to their full capacity, which is understood to be about 2,500,000 carcases annually. Freezing operations in the Falkland Islands are conducted on board a small steamer, which returns to this country at the close of each season.

The general quality of shipments from Australia has been well maintained, and in some respects improved upon, and it is confidently anticipated that the care to be exercised at the new works shortly to be opened in Queensland will insure the shipment thence of nothing but prime carcases of the class grown in that colony. There has been a distinct improvement in the character of the sheep imported from the River Plate during the year 1891, as compared with the two preceding years. This is only what was expected in a favourable season, the steps taken prior to 1889 with a view to improving the breed of many of the largest flocks in the country having naturally resulted in an all-round advance in respect of average weight per carcase and quality of mutton. In the case of the Falkland Island sheep there has likewise been a favourable movement as compared with the quality of the importations in 1886."

It is gratifying to know that the quality of the mutton imported into England, especially from the River Plate is improving year by year. Frozen mutton now composes one-fourth of all that is consumed in the U. Kingdom, viz:—

Carcases yearly
British and Irish.....	10,200,000
Frozen imported	3,300,000
Total	13,500,000

Before the close of the century we may expect to see the importation of frozen mutton reach 10,000,000 carcases yearly into Europe.

THE CAJA DE CONVERSION.

The Prensa makes the following disclosures:—

In view of the recent resignation of members of the Caja de Conversion, we have made some researches, with a view of arriving at the antecedents. We have gathered information as to what has passed in the Caja since the Board took over the noble legacy of their predecessors. From authentic sources we have gathered disjointed details, which may be easily put together.

In the first questions of importance that came up for discussion, the Board shewed their hands. Messrs, Areco and Chas manifested their intention of following their own criterion and pursuing an independent line of conduct. Messrs. Frias and Cuyar shewed their desire to conform to the acts of the Government, while the Chairman, Dr. Martinez, sided with the first two. Such opposed elements generated anarchy. Unity of action was impossible, as the following will shew:—

On the 25th November, the Executive issued a decree authorising the Government of Cordoba to make an illegal issue, against which the first Board protested. By the last decree to which we have referred, the National Government recognised the issue of "bonos agricolas" by the Cordobese Government to withdraw the clandestine issue of paper money—in other words one issue—an abuse—was to be replaced by another, which was equally an abuse.

The Caja has its lines of jurisdiction clearly marked out in such a case, but the Caja did not exercise its rights, on account of the Executive.

When the question was being discussed, Messrs Frias and Cuyar objected to any observation being made to the Executive in regard to the illegality of the decree. Messrs Chas and Areco advised the contrary, and the casting vote of the chairman decided in their favor. The Executive paid not the slightest attention to the remonstrance.

Another detail:

The Executive authorized, without consulting the Caja, an arrangement proposed by the Tucuman Government for the service of its foreign debt, with the interest of the guaranteed bonds of the Free Bank, an open violation of the Free Banking Act. The Executive sent the arrangement, when concluded, to the Caja to be carried out. Messrs Chas and Areco, as well as the chairman, were decidedly of opinion that the Executive should be informed that such an arrangement could not be carried out, as it was contrary to the Act. Mr. Frias was of opinion that the Government was not obliged to consult the Caja. On the contrary, the Caja, he said, was obliged to obey the instructions of Government, since no law authorized the Caja to criticize the acts of Government. Mr. Cuyar declared himself to be of Mr. Frias's opinion, but both these gentlemen were defeated by the casting vote of the chairman:

Another detail:

Messrs Louis Cohen and Son sent a somewhat stiff note to the Caja demanding the immediate payment of the interest due by the Tucuman Government, in accordance with the arrangement we mentioned above. At the same time they asked for a statement of the amount due by the Caja to the Tucuman Government as interest of the bonds guaranteeing the Tucuman issue. Messrs Areco and Chas were indignant at this note and moved that it should be thrown into the waste-paper basket. Mr. Frias asked for time to study the question, and at the end of four or five weeks, he advised the immediate payment of the interest to Messrs Cohen and Son. The question was as usual decided by the casting vote of the chairman in accordance with law and the dignity of the Caja.

The Government paid no attention to the resolutions of the Board.

These proceedings and the attitude of Messrs. Frias and Cuyar prompted Messrs. Areco and Chas to resign at that time, because they felt that they could not fulfill their mission, but at the Chairman's instance they consented to remain on the Board.

Several other questions cropped up in regard to the Banco de la Nacion Argentina, the fractionary issue, the printing of notes, the salary assigned to Mr. Cuyar as syndic etc., in all of which there was a repetition of the old story.

The liquidation of the National Bank threw fresh fuel into the fire.

We have other details in our note-book, but for the present the foregoing suffice. Later on, when the Board is reorganized, we may make further disclosures.

From the foregoing the public will have gathered the reasons of the resignation of Messrs. Areco, Chas and Martinez, as well as some features of this period of administration. One cannot help exclaiming. The Caja is dead, in the hands of the Government which created it. It has no further mission or authority. These things disgust and embitter the public mind.

OUR LONDON LETTER.

POSTSCRIPT.

(From our own Correspondent)

Feb. 19th.

Political matters have to-day taken an unexpected turn. Mr. Balfour has made an unhappy debut as First Lord of the Treasury and leader of the House of Commons. His Irish Local Government Bill, of which so much has been said and so much expected as an alternative measure to Home Rule, was introduced by him last night, and lucidly explained, but with the result that it was received with shouts of derision by the opposition, and the only Unionist speaker of note who attempted to defend it was Mr. Chamberlain, who had the misfortune to quote the action of the United States legislatures and was overthrown by Mr. Bryce in a neat professorial fashion. The discomfiture of Mr. Balfour and the Unionists was complete. So much so, that although the new Bill was allowed to pass a first reading unchallenged, as Sir William Harcourt contemptuously observed, it might be printed and copies carried in every Liberal van for distribution amongst the electors to expose the stupidity of the Bill and of its Tory-Unionist framers—it can be said in Stock Exchange parlance, that Home Rule has gone up to-day several points. The only difficulty to be foreseen is that Mr. Gladstone may in his Home Rule Bill introduce as many checks and balances as Mr. Balfour has done in his Local Government Bill—in other words he may show the same distrust of the Irish people, and pander to the same belief in their corruptibility. There is no use mincing matters. That belief exists. It is fair to Mr. Balfour to say that according to rumour he had been overruled in the cabinet by the influence of Lord Salisbury and his supporters, whose opinions of Ireland and the Catholic Irish have quite recently been published. The clause in the Bill which gives most offence—or, remembering the description given of Sir William Harcourt shaking his fat sides in continuous spasms of hilarity—I may say creates most amusement is that by which the Baronial or District Council in Irish counties is, if it misbehaves itself in regard to morals or expenditure, to be tried—put in the dock, as Sir William says—and if found guilty by the judge of assize, to be dissolved and a new council of cess-payers to be nominated by the said judge of assize. Then, there is the cumulative vote pressed into the Bill for the protection of the blessed minority. The clause, like many others in the Bill, is simply stupid and needlessly discovers its origin in minds saturated with the sentiment of the "property-defence association." In the South of Ireland where there are few Protestants the cumulative vote would have no effect and it would be equally useless in the North where the Catholic minority is so large. Mr. Balfour, to do him credit, not only knows the absurdity of these clauses but virtually admitted it. His speech from beginning to end was an apology for introducing the Bill at all. The graciousness of the apology was somewhat marred by his peroration—cut very short in presence of the derisive cheers from the Liberal Irish benches. Mr. Balfour in that peroration, when he was perhaps suppressing an ebullition of temper, allowed it to be seen that in his opinion it was not a question of this or that stupid clause, or of an endeavour as far as was safe to entrust the Irish with local Government on the English and Scotch democratic models, the question was giving the Irish local Government at all, or any Government that was administered by them, for nothing in that way, as he said plainly, would be of any material advantage to Ireland, when all that was wanted was paternal Government in the shape of light railways and land acts (with proper safeguards) and coercion. Mr. Balfour is a little bitten with German pessimism and, like many other young Englishmen, sneers at liberty and rights and "all that." So that he may not have meant what he said, to be judged as Mr. Healy or any merely smart lawyer would judge it. But it will be so judged, and the Conservative Government at present seems to be in a dilemma, for the Bill will scarcely survive the contemptuous reception it has received at a first reading, and whether it is pushed through with amendments or abandoned, it can now never serve the Government as a subject of appeal to the country; whilst, as already stated, the prospects of pure Home Rule advocated by the opposition have been proportionately improved by the Government fiasco.

You will find the report of the debate quite exhilarating. You can form some idea of it from the epithets applied to the Bill:—"Monstrous imposture" (Morley). "An insult" (Healy). "An absurd Bill" (Sexton). "Simply stupid" (Knox). "Pleases no one" (Redmond). "A put in the dock Bill" (Harcourt). All accompanied by triumphant Home Rule shouts of laughter and expressions of contempt, while the Government benches grew pale at seeing their one champion, Mr. Chamberlain, go down. Mr. Balfour cannot afford another such failure.

PROVINCIAL NEWS.

Our Corrientes exchanges confirm all the particulars we recently gave in regard to the terrible atrocities of which the prison-guards were the victims. Our exchanges add details too revolting for publication. Yet, although the feeling of indignation caused by the news of the atrocities is still fresh, not only in Corrientes but throughout the whole country, the Corrientes Government has done nothing in the way of redress. According to yesterday's telegrams, the injured guards are still lying in the police-station, no orders having been issued for their removal to the hospital The President of the Republic, the local judges and other magnates have done their best to have the unfortunate men removed to the hospital, but the Governor does not appear to take any notice of the reiterated instances. The guards are not allowed to see their friends and relatives who flock to the doors of the police-station every day. The police-doctor states that one of the men is dying, but he hopes to save six. As there were eight, it is supposed that one has already succumbed to his injuries. It seems to be believed in Corrientes that the prison guard has not been disbanded at all, and that the guard is in San Roque, where the famous Nuñez is engaged recruiting it.

The recollection of the recent outrage in Olavarria, where the police attacked the Municipality and deposed the Intendente, is still fresh, and peace-lovers will be glad to learn that the Supreme Court of the Province has ordered the Mayor to be reinstated. There is joy in Olavarria on this account. Flags are flying from the balconies and tops of houses, and bands of music are playing in the streets. The Intendente is evidently a popular man.

In regard to the fire in Esperanza which we chronicled in our last, we learn that the deposits were insured, and the losses only $18,000.

The National Mortgage Bank has come down on San Luis like a wolf on the fold. No less than 30 foreclosures are reported, but the fun of the business is that there are no buyers. The province too is frightfully hard-up, the school-masters being unpaid for several months. On the other hand, the police force is being increased.

Our Rosario exchanges think that the Intendente there is about to resign. In the meantime, Messrs. Samuel B. Hale and Co. have made fresh proposals to the Municipality for arranging the Municipal debt and other questions.

Telegrams received yesterday state that a shock of earthquake was felt about breakfast-hour in Santiago del Estero. No damage appears to have been occasioned, but the inhabitants were frightened, which, after all, is very natural. Talking of Santiago del Estero, we note that the printing-offices of El Pais have been embargoed.

LAWN-TENNIS v. CRICKET.

March 21st.

Mr. Editor,

Having unfortunately been absent from Buenos Ayres at the time of the late meeting of the Cricket Club, I venture to trespass upon your space.

It is a pity that the cry of lawn tennis v. cricket has been raised, as the chief supporters of the tournament were cricketers who would not have thought of interfering with cricket in any way, as they infinitely prefer this game, but who were enthusiastic enough about other games to wish to make good use of the ground when it was not wanted for cricket.

It is also a pity that the Club did not support the Committee they had elected in their interpretation of the Rules. It is certainly strange that, if Rules 21 and 24 can be interpreted to allow the use of the ground for cricket matches like North v. South, Montevideo v. Rosario, which we all hope to see annual fixtures, and for open athletic meetings, to say nothing of base-ball and football, they cannot also be interpreted to allow an open lawn tennis tournament.

There is a general feeling that at the next ordinary meeting the Rules should be so altered as to leave no doubt of the powers of the Committee, and that tennis should be put on a more satisfactory basis. It is a great disappointment to those who so kindly offered prizes for the tournament that it was not allowed to take place; they mourn the want of enthusiasm in our games, and regret that their efforts to reawaken it have not proved successful.

The real object of this letter is, however, not to call attention to such points, but to see if something cannot be done to counteract the effect of Resolution No. 2 concerning the ladies, which was justly styled by the late President of the Club as "most discourteous and unseemly, besides being uncalled for." He resigned the Presidency in consequence of it, and it seems a poor return to make to him and Mrs. Pakenham for all the interest they have taken in the Club, and a sad impression of us for them to take away.

It is not enough to say that no insult was meant, for other ladies who came to the Club have taken it more to heart and have resolved not to come again, and one cannot be surprised. It may not be generally known that 16 ladies presented a complete tea service to the Club a few weeks ago, and that they were always delighted to welcome any number of men at the teas they so kindly provided. It is more than likely that the letter signed "A lady" in your issue of the 19th inst. was not written by a lady, as it certainly does not echo the views of the ladies who came to the ground The well-organised majority voted "en masse" for the three resolutions as set forth; but it is to be hoped that they did not realize how they were insulting the ladies, and how, through the correspondence and advertisements in the papers, the insult was such a public one that people of other nationalities wonder at our rudeness.

Without prejudicing in any way the rights of the Club and Committee to make such rules and bye-laws as they may think fit, we might either sign a petition or authorize the new Committee to do so, to the effect that we regret the annoyance caused to the ladies by the passing of Resolution No. 2; that no insult was intended; and that we hope they will take the same interest in our games as they have done heretofore.

Yours truly,

A. B. S.

[Ed. Note—If an expression of opinion on our part can be of any weight we gladly echo the sentiments expressed above.

BANKING SCANDALS IN RIO.

(From the "Rio News.")

The Government of Marshal Deodoro resolved to open a credit of £300,000 to the Banco da Republica under a guarantee of 5,000 Government bonds.

All still remember the indignation which the revelation of that favor produced. The transaction, however, at bottom, did not demand censure, as the Treasury was covered. The reason of the indignation was the fact of the Government making use of the gold exported from the people, to favor an establishment which had already been favored with the monopoly of gold cheques.

The Banco da Republica obtained the favor received the £300,000 and deposited the Government bonds.

Of the £300,000 it has now paid £100,000. With the account thus made of £200,000, to the debit, it was only just that the Government should permit the withdrawal of surplus guarantee.

It was not, however, 900 but 5,000 of the Government bonds deposited which the bank required. Financial chemistry was not invented to result in pure loss.

The Banco da Republica had no cash, but it had shares of the Sorocabana railway. It could not arrange a loan on this scrip, as the other banks refused to effect such transactions, besides they also required funds.

The chemists of the bank remembered, however, in a fortunate hour for them, that a friendly Government was worth more than cash in hand. This bright idea caused them to propose to the Government, which soon accepted, the deposit of the shares as guarantee and the withdrawal of the Government bonds.

And so there remained £200,000, valued, at to-day's exchange, 4,120 contos of reis, guaranteed by 10,000 Sorocabana shares which at to-day's quotation of Rs. 808000 represent the sum of 8000 contos of reis.

The bank thus realized the small economy of 3,320 contos of reis.

Readers must not think, however, the history closes here.

The doctors of the Associacao Commercial and Rua da Alfandega counselled the government to render aid to the banks, and it was decreed that the loan should be effected of Government bonds and other specified scrip.

The Banco da Republica took its 5,000 Government bonds, substituted by Sorocabanas, and for them received 5,000 contos of reis more.

Never did the cleverest chemistry of our market, which is one of the most perfect in the world, arrive at so good a precipitate.

With 10,000 Sorocabana shares to obtaing 8,320 contos, Baron Diniz, who achieved such success with the trunk line and extension, never thought he would be thus cut out. Sorocabana's at 832$000 each, without the heat, without the crushing, without the shouting, and without the repudiation of transactions on the street ensilhamento!

CENTRAL ARGENTINE AND ROSARIO RAILWAYS AMALGAMATION

The following letter has been published in London.

Sir,

I see Mr. Houston continues his agitation for this amalgamation, but he has omitted to state that the bulk of his Central Argentine stock has been quite recently acquired; I would suggest to those interested to copy him and buy now; further, if they have Rosario, to sell it.

The last weekly traffic of Central Argentine was over £10,000; if this rate be maintained, it would give a dividend on the ordinary stock. I make out that only about £8,000 per week is required to cover up to fixed charges.

Mr. Houston denies that the new Argentine Railway Law prohibits amalgamation. I have the Spanish text before me, and the sense of clause 67 is more stringent in its prohibition than the English translation.

Mr. Houston has the nightmare that I am a director. I am not; no stock-broker is on the Board.

It looks as if Rosario would require shortly fresh capital; if so, it is obvious that the Rosario shareholders should desire amalgamation.

I am, &c.,
Anglo-Argentine.

Ed. Note—There is a "snake in the grass" in the above letter. The Central Argentine was worked last year at a loss of £30,000. How long can this go on?

THE FREE WOOL PETITION.

The appeal of the Wool Consumers Association for free wool and lower duties on woolen goods is signed by the representatives of six of the largest woolen mills in New England. The Wool Consumers' Association rightly declares that the high wool duties since 1867 have failed to accomplish the end sought by their imposition—namely, the raising of a domestic supply of wool sufficient in quantity and of the qualities necessary to supply the various needs of our woolen mills. This is largely true of clothing and combing wools, and entirely so of coarse carpet wools. In fact, the United States produces no carpet wools, nor is it at all likely that our farmers will allow their sheep to retrograde sufficiently to do so.

The United States is the only one of the leading nations of the world which imposes a duty upon foreign wool. At the same time it is also, in spite of the almost prohibitive duties on goods, the only one which imports woolen manufactures to any great extent. This latter result has been reached because our woolen manufacturers have been restricted to the use of the few varieties of domestic wools, or, if they have ventured to buy foreign wools, have been forced to pay higher prices than their foreign competitors in the same market.

So far as the objects sought to be attained by it are concerned, the McKinley tariff on wool has been a failure. The argument that it has not had sufficient time to work out the results expected of it is not tenable for it is no new departurer in legislation, but merely a greatly exaggerated copy of the Act in 1867. It is about time, therefore, that a change should be made in an opposite direction by putting raw wool on the free list and reducing the duties on goods. N. Y. Commercial Bulletin.

Surrey.
Feb. 16th.

Mr. Editor,

I beg to acknowledge the receipt of your letter enclosing draft for £72 10s 0. It came to me as a great surprise. I can scarcely express to you in words what I feel for the great kindness and sympathy shown by the subscribers. I assure you I am deeply sensible of the manner in which my dear husband's memory is cherished by his many friends at Buenos Ayres, and which has found such a spontaneous expression of feeling amongst them.

Among the many tokens of sincere respect and regard for my late husband I have received from "all quarters" I value none the less highly this substantial recognition of sympathy, and I feel sure I need hardly ask that you will, through your valuable paper, convey my heartfelt thanks to one and all, and especially to yourselves for the trouble taken in promoting the subscription.

Believe me,
Yours very sincerely.
Sara Frances Rowsell.

P.S.—I might add that after the 25 years of faithful and anxious service the R. M. S. Company have refused any pecuniary assistance whatever for myself and 5 children.

THE PRESS OF BUENOS AYRES.

March 19th.

Mr. Editor,

In Mr. M. G. Mulhall's reply to the toast "The Press of Buenos Ayres" at the St. Patrick's Banquet on the 17th inst. he says: "This is the only city in the world in which you can have newspapers on your breakfast table in English, French, Spanish, Italian and German."

Now five morning papers should be sufficient to satisfy anyone, nevertheless the city of Constantinople can, and does, give Buenos Ayres a long start and a good beating in that direction, for beyond all the publications he mentions, Constantinopolitans can also add the following morning papers, Arabic, Armenian, Bulgarian, Greek, Turkish and Russian, or more than double the number required in Buenos Ayres to assist their digestion.

Yours,
Byzantine.

THE BOY'S ORPHANAGE.

All persons who attended the function on St. Patrick's Day at the Passionist church were struck with the smart, healthy and comfortable appearance of the lads of the Boy's Orphanage, and on this point the Herald took occasion to compliment Mrs Michael Mulhall, but as that lady was unwilling to take all the merit of the institution she sent to our esteemed colleague the following note:

STANDARD Office.
March 18th,

To the Editor of the Herald,

Dear Sir,

While thanking you very much for your complimentary reference to me in your issue of to-day, I beg to say that I am only one of the many ladies who founded the Boys' Orphanage and subsequently did me the honor to elect me their President.

I remain,
Yours very truly.
M. Mulhall,
President of the Boys' Orphanage.

HENCE THESE TEARS!

A merry maiden once was I,
And happy as the day,
Until I was induced to buy
The Bonds of Uruguay.

But though the Bank of England says
No better can be done—
Perverse, you know, are woman's ways—
I take another tone.

And unconverted still remain.
Pray what will be my fate?
For I my Unified retain,
And won't capitulate.

No wonder I am getting thin,
And that my face is pale!
Oh, tell me, must I really pin
My faith to Lidderdale?

RAILWAY ITEMS.

The local Board of the Bahia Blanca and North Western has applied for arbitration to settle the following questions:—(1) Participation of the National Interventor in drawing up the tariff; (2) Elemination of the expenditure allowed for a board in London; and (3) expenditure for the local Board (at present £2,500 per annum).

Mr. Meliton Pancio has accepted a seat on the National Railway Board.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The week and the autumn season opened hand in hand yesterday, and there seemed to be more liveliness than last week both on and off 'Change. Old Mrs. Rumour, who has returned from a sojourn in the camp, set her tongue going again about polo and other things, and her pet bird, the Gold Eagle, showed signs of stretching his wings, which have been getting a trifle stiff of late.

The mails for the Orenoque to-day close at 11 o'clock and those for the Wordsworth at noon; with a double-postage bag at 3 p.m. if there is a river steamer for Montevideo.

Letters have been received from Father Foran, in Newcastle on Tyne, where he is now parish-priest. He sends "recuerdos" to all his friends in the Plate; and we are glad to say that the esteemed clergyman is in excellent health.

The Rowing Club announces an interesting Regatta at the Tigre for Friday next, a holiday. There are five events on the card, including a tub and swimming race.

The Amazonas has just arrived with eight more Krupp batteries and 1495 cases of Mauser rifles for the Argentine army.

The Chilian papers to hand report another sailor difficulty with Uncle Sam. A Swedish sailor on a North American ship was left drunk in the streets by his comrades, as he could not walk. Next morning he was found wounded, and he died in a few days. An enquiry is going on.

The President of the Republic returned to town yesterday, much improved in health by his short stay at Mr. Casares's estancia at Cañuelas.

The authorities of the St. John's Church Sunday Schools desire us to inform the scholars and their friends and parents that the contemplated pic-nic on Friday next will not take place. This annual excursion of the choirs and Sunday-schools of the various federated churches and chapels of St. John's will probably take place in the month after next, on the Feast of the Ascension.

The Subscription List of the Studdert Kerin Memorial Fund is now closed and we are glade to notice that the total amount subscribed is about $3000. The general meeting of Subscribers to settle the fund definitely, and appoint Trustees, will be held at the British Consulate, Rosario, on Tuesday, 22nd inst. at 5p.m. We refer those interested in this Fund to 'The Argentine News' (Rosario) of the 19th. inst. for full details and List of Subscribers.

Here's a tit-bit for Sir John Lubbock. The other night, in a quinta residence at Devoto, the ants bored their way through the cork of a bottle of prime Lachrima Christi. Some 50,000 of them were drunk and drowned before the authorities (there are organized authorities among ants, as is well known) were informed of the catastrophe. Then a battalion of white ants (presumably troops or police) was marched to the rescue, and made heroic efforts to save the fellows in the bottle, but several of the rescuers perished in the attempt. Finally some means must have been devised to get at the liquor without danger, as in the morning the bottle was as empty as the La Plata Treasury; and the Ant King, his Ministers, the Lord Mayor and Corporation, the Health Board and Asistencia Publica, military and naval authorities, the leading bankers, merchants, brokers, and many prominent members of the highest ants of the community were found on the floor, sleeping off the effects of the night's festivity.

Mr. John J. Bithell and Mrs. Bithell leave in the Wordsworth to-day for old England, and we join their many friends in wishing them a pleasant voyage. Mr. Bithell is prominent in Railway circles here and has just completed the Tres Arroyos Extension. Mr. and Mrs. Bithell have left in our hands the following generous contributions to the English charitable institutions of the city:—

British Hospital.....	£10.
Convalescent Home.....	£10.
Dr. O'Connor's Garden.....	£ 5.
Boys' Orphanage.....	£ 5.

Monsieur is determined to stand no Anarchist nonsense, just as Uncle Sam stamped the guild out in his domain by using the rope vigorously at Chicago a couple of years ago. The French Chamber of Deputies is going to pass a Bill that will consign to the guillotine all authors of dynamite explosions. No doubt, all other European nations will speedily follow suit.

Mr. Mattaldi's furniture shop in Calle Callao was burned out yesterday morning between 1 and 2 o'clock. The Bomberos speedily mastered the flames; but $10,000 worth of chairs, tables, sofas etc. ended in smoke. A 'botica' next door was considerably singed, and a lot of Cockle's Pills, Cod Liver Oil, rhubarb, senna, salts, magnesia etc., was destroyed, to the great delight of the children in the vicinity, who have a horror of such nasty stuff, inspired by bitter experience.

The art of saying pretty things to ladies is unfortunately one of the lost ones in this helter skelter, money-hunting age; and the fast girl of the period is mainly answerable for it. Here are two old time compliments to the fair sex not to be matched nowadays:—"Fontenelle, when ninety years old, passed before Mme. Helvetius without perceiving her. "Ah!" said the lady, "that is your gallantry, then! To pass before me without ever looking at me!" "If I had looked at you, madame," replied the old beau, "I never could have passed you at all." As neat a one was uttered by general Romaine. Meeting Lady de Brientz, whom he had known and admired in the loveliness of her youth, he commenced complimenting her. "You forget that I am an old woman," she said at length. "Madame," returned the gallant soldier, "when our eyes are dazzled by a diamond it never occurs to us to ask a mineralogist for its history."

A family in the Village of the Plain, where there are no plain-looking girls, had a 'mauvais quart d'heure' on Sunday. They treated themselves to some cheese at the nearest 'almacen' and soon wished they hadn't, as they were all vomiting and roaring with pain. The doctor, however, has succeeded in keeping them all above ground, and the police are 'summarizing' the grocer who sold the cheese.

There must be some mistake in the news that the Italian steamer Andrea Doria, from Genoa to the Plate, has four thousand three hundred passengers on board! There is something wrong in the thousands.

Guaranteed Railway men looked sour and sad yesterday, in consequence of a fresh thunderbolt from the National Railway Board establishing new means of screwing fines out of their companies.

The Montevideo Times takes a fraternal interest in the Lawn-Tennis-Cricket unpleasantness here, and says "We consider lawn-tennis an admirable game, in many respects preferable to cricket or football, and far more suited to the conditions of this country and climate. We think, therefore, that every opportunity should be given for its development, and this can best be done by already established cricket clubs. Even if lawn tennis did come to occupy a more prominent place than cricket, we think that the gain would be greater than the loss, but at the same time we see no reason why the question of rivalry should be raised so long as there is room for both."

There was a political demonstration to Dr. Saenz Peña, the Presidential Heir Apparent, on Saturday night. There was a good deal of bad music, but everything else was all right, especially the strict maintenance of order throughout the proceedings.

There was an enormous crowd of people of all degrees at Palermo on Sunday to witness the drill of the Volunteers. The 2nd N.G's. are cocks of the walk with the public, as they have started a splendid band, under the direction of Maestro Pablantonio.

Dear Sirs—
"I have tried HAYWARD'S "ASTE" DIP on my Sheep, and have pleasure in bearing testimony to ITS EFFICACY AS A DIP. I need have no hesitation in recommending it generally as a Cure for Scab, without discolouring or damaging the Wool. The "ASTE" is in my opinion preferable to the Powder, and will probably have a larger sale than the latter."
Yours very truly
(Signed)
JOHN KELLIE.

It has been proved by many important Estancieros that HAYWARD'S PASTE is more convenient to use than any other Dip, being already mixed and dissolving in any kind of water. It makes a smooth soapy bath which adheres well to the Fleece and leaves the wool clean and soft.

ON 'CHANGE.

Monday, March 21st.
The week opened this morning with a sudden spurt in the gold market. Twelve thousand ounces changed hands at the first ring; the price opened at 56.50, fell to 56.30 and closed at 56.40, say 246¼ % premium. Sixteen hundred sovereigns were sold; the price opened at 17.50 and closed steady at the same rate, say 247¼ % premium. The market closed with a rising tendency.
Patriotic Bonds ruled very weak; they fell to 59.30 and closed at 59.40. National Bank shares fell back to 20. Catalinas were unsteady at 7.40. National Cedulas were in demand, E closing at 76, D at 75, and C at 72. La Plata Cedulas remained steady at 29½.

The Mattaldi furniture store, which was reduced to ashes last night, in the Calle Callao, was insured for $15,000 in the Norwich Union and 15,000 in the Royal. The only articles saved in the wreckage were three beautifully gilt chairs.

Mr. A. Walker, agent of the new Australia Cooperative Settlement Association, has applied to the National Government for a land grant of 64 square leagues to start agricultural families under the provisions of the Homestead Law. Mr. Walker proposes to start 250 families on each section of 32 leagues within a term of 4 years, and applies for grants in Chubut, Rio Negro, and Neuquen colonies. The Land and Colonies Office has reported favorably on Mr. Walker's application.
Our London colleague Money writes as follows of the Entre Rios Extract of Meal Co :—
"This company was unfortunate in the moment of its birth. Formed during the period of Argentine inflation, when all enterprises in that country were tinged with the colours of the rose, it has lived to discover that all was not that fancy painted it. For this darkening of the picture it does not appear that the directors can be held responsible. Circumstances have proved too much for the company, as they have for others before it. The conditions of the markets have been such that for the moment the extract business of the company is suspended, and the dried beef trade cannot be said to be in a satisfactory condition. However, it would really appear that the depression had now touched bottom. Stocks are reported to be rapidly decreasing, and with this there must come a gradual rise in prices. When the proper time comes the company is prepared to take full advantage of it. Their factory is equipped with a splendid plant, which, it is stated, can be set going at a day's notice. A little more capital will be required to enable the directors to

The news from Montevideo was unfavorable to-day. At an early hour it was known that our frisky neighbors had begun to run on the London and River Plate Bank branch there. Later in the day it was announced that the run was acquiring larger proportions every moment. Innumerable telegrams were sent up to this market with the disagreeable news, but the verdict of one and all was that the banking colossus could afford to laugh at the run. Some telegrams maintain that the run on the bank is the work of "wreckers," and this we readily believe. We think that too much importance is attached to the run in Montevideo.

An uncomfortable feeling was rampant in the gold market this afternoon and the premium rose rapidly. Twelve thousand ounces were sold for to morrow; the price opened at 56.50 and touched 56.80; the market closed at 56.70, say 2484⅞ premium. Eleven hundred sovereigns were sold; the price opened at 17.58 and closed at 17.60, say 2491⅞. At the last moment there were buyers of ounces at 56.80, say 249 per cent premium, but this was the quotation on the kerbstone.

Provincial gold Cedulas A changed hands this morning at 12—a very low quotation indeed. La Plata Cedulas were very weak.

The following steamers will sail on or about the undermentioned dates :—

Ss. Araucania on 3rd April.

Ss. Patagonia on 1st May.

Ss. Magellan on 27th May.

Messrs. Holder Bros.'s steamer Hornby Grange arrived at Montevideo to-day, with 6 passengers, 154 tons cargo for Montevideo, 1392 tons for Buenos Ayres, and 15 tons for Rosario.

Mr. Uladislao Frias, director of the Caja de Conversion, sent in his resignation to the National Government to-day.

The National Government accepted to-day the resignations tendered by Mr. Victor Martinez, Chairman, Messrs Areco and Chas, Directors of the Caja de Conversion. The President of the Republic and Mr. Hansen, Minister of Finance, were closeted this evening, busily engaged in drawing up the answer to the above gentlemen, whose notes of resignation were somewhat intemperate.

The returns of the Custom House today amounted to

The Minister of Finance has fixed the rate of gold at 335 for payment of Customs dues.

The Financial News makes the following startling revelations with regard to banking in Rio de Janeiro :—

"The last mail from Brazil brings us the most extraordinary revelations about the working of the banks of issue under the present law, which the Congress, contrary to the hopes of all round economists and honest financiers, has chosen to maintain. The banks in question are under a legal obligation to deposit with the Government gold to one-third of the value of the notes which they are privileged to emit. The Jornel do Commercio of January says that the amount supposed to have been deposited under this law by the principal institutions concerned was 97,350,328$392, divided as follows :—

Banco da Republica.....	74,514,093$862
Banco da Bahia.	2,000,000$000
Banco Emissor da Bahia.....	2,000,000$000
Banco de Credito Popular.....	11,557,000$000
Banco Emissor da Pernambuco.	7,779,434$530

"It now transpires that during Marshal Fonseca's presidency and dictatorship, in order to facilitate the operations of the banks which had got into trouble through mismanagement, nearly one-half of the above amount—say 50,000,000$000, or £2,500,000—was given over to the more favoured banks; so that the present large paper issue has only half the gold basis—in other words, only one-sixth of the note value, instead of one-third—that people believed it had. To put the transaction plainly, Senhor Lucena parted with good hard sovereigns on the promise of the banks that they would provide him with bills of exchange against London in place of the gold withdrawn. They gave no guarantee beyond the endorsement of their promise by other banks, such as the Banco Constructor, the Credito Real do Brazil, etc. Senhor Lucena gave, last August, £1,000,000 to the Banco da Republica, which that institution is now quite unable to refund. One uundred thousand pounds of the loan, has been repaid, but the following amounts, which should have been refunded at the dates set against them, have not been refunded :—

	£
October, 1891.....	100,000
November, 1891.....	300,000
December, 1891.....	300,000
January, 1892.....	200,000

"Virtually, this inability to pay the gold borrowed, and thus not only to fulfill the promises made to the Government, but also to comply with the stipulations of the law, amounts to a confession of insolvency. Yet the Banco da Republica, notwithstanding this discreditable condition of things, is still the great Bank of Brazil, with a tremendous issue of paper money and enjoying most extensive privileges."

Our colleague Financial Review publishes the following late telegrams :—

TEA

INJURIOUS TEA DRINKING.

In the "Daily Post" of September 2 appears a leading article—evidently from an analytical expert—showing that after 15 minutes "draw," Indian Tea yields 17·73 of tannin, while from China comes only 7·93. What this means few know, but those troubled with indigestion may realise in part by use of True China Tea for one week.

GUARANTEED PURE.

Beware of gross, imitations of this well-known mark. Sold in tins of 1, 3, 6 and 12 lbs.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S
CHLORODYNE.
The original and only genuine
Advice to Invalids.—If you wish to obtain quiet refreshing sleep, free from headache, relief from pain and anguish, to calm and assuage the weary achings of protracted disease, invigorate the nervous media and regulate the circulating systems of the body, disease, invigorate the nervous media and regulate the circulating systems of the body, you will provide yourself with that marvellous remedy discovered by D. J. Collis Brown, you will provide yourself with that marvellous remedy discovered by D. J. Collis Brown, (late Army Medical Staff), to which he gave the name of CHLORODYNE, and which is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered Asthma.
CHLORODYNE is the best remedy known for Coughs, Consumption, Bronchitis
CHLORODYNE acts like a charm in Diarrhœa, and is the only specific in Cholera and Dysentery.
CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitation and Spasms.
CHLORODYNE is the only palliative in Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Cancer, Toothache, Meningitis, etc.
From Symes & Co., Pharmaceutical Chemists, Medical Hall, Simla, January 5, 1889.
To J. T. Davenport, Esq., 33, Great Russel Street, Bloomsbury, London. Lear Sir,—We embrace this opportunity of congratulating you upon the widespread reputation this justly esteemed medecine, Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne, has earned for itself, not only in Hindostan; but all over the East. As a remedy for general utility, we must question wether a better is imported into the country, and we shall be glad to hear of its finding a place in every Anglo-Indian home. The other brands, we are so sorry to say, are now relegated to the native bazaars, and, judging from their sale, we fancy their sojourn there will be but evanescent, we could multiply instances "ad infinitum" of the extraordinary efficacy of Dr. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne in Diarrhœa and Dysentery, Sapasms, Crampas, Neuralgia, the Vomiting of Pregnancy, and as a general sedative that have occurred under our personal observation dury many years. In Cholereic Diarrhœa, and even in the more terrible forms of Cholera itself, we have witnessed its surprisingly controlling power. We have never used any other form of this medicine than Collis Browne's from a firm Conviction that it is decidedly the best, and also from a sense of duty we owe to the profession and the public, as we are of opinion that the substitution of any other than Collis Browne's is a deliberate Breach of Faith on the part of the Chemist to prescribe and Patient alike. We are, Sir, faithfully yours, Symes and Co., Members of the Pharm. Society of Great Britain. His Excellency the Viceroy's Chemists.
CAUTION.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. Page Wood stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne, was, undoubtedly, the Inventor of Chlorodine; that the story of the defendant Freeman "Times," July 13, 1864.
